While surfing the net...

Jessica, age 16, writes, “About two weeks ago, my boyfriend and I lost our virginity to each other. What is the likelihood that I’m pregnant? Please respond ASAP!”

A young girl from Jersey City, age 15, writes: “Besides having an abortion, is there anyway to stop a pregnancy, such as a miscarriage? How can a person have a miscarriage?”

As you can see, many of our teens have little or no knowledge about pregnancy, even after years of mandatory school sponsored sex ed classes. There is a better teaching goal .. abstinence.

Above is a recent photo of Carline and baby Shelbie (born August 1, 2001). The father of the baby, after finding out that we were not an abortion facility, stormed into the room where Carline was being counseled. After being encouraged to view The Wonder of Life, he recognized that his baby was about seven weeks along. He changed his mind, and now Shelbie is here to celebrate the Lord’s intervention.
